LB 484, 524

want to speak. The Chair recognizes Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, I think it would be better, if we are not going to vote to pass the bill, right now to just pass over it on Final Reading instead of returning it to Select File and just letting it hang there because I don't know what procedure we would be pursuing by following such a course, so if the bill is not felt to be ready for Final Reading, perhaps the interested parties could agree to just pass over it and leave it on Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: All right. Senator Lewis, Speaker Marvel, will that procedure be agreeable to the Speaker in his order?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Do we have any idea how long we are talking about?

PRESIDENT: Senator Lewis, the Speaker is inquiring as to how long this might be?

Again, we will try one more time, this time, we will pass over LB 484 on Final Reading, the next bill will be LB 524. No motion, so we will proceed, the Clerk will proceed with Final Reading of LB 524.

CLERK: Read LB 524 on Final Reading.
